

KSSP Terms and Conditions

Competitions

By registering for a KSSP Competition you agree to adhere to the following terms and conditions.

1. You have read, understood and agree to the following;
 - a. All relevant rules and information regarding the event, including date, location, time, competition rules, squad size, year group and all other relevant items.
 - b. Adhere to the event risk assessment.
 - c. Have parental consent from all children attending and access to their emergency / medical details.
 - d. All information regarding parents, including whether they are able to attend the event, and you understand it is your responsibility to inform parents whether they are or are not allowed to attend said event.
If parents are allowed to attend, you understand that is your school's responsibility to manage the behaviour of your parents.
 - e. Adhere to KSSP's Codes of Conduct, for parents, staff, young people and coaches. You understand that if your young people, staff or parents break these codes of conduct they may be asked to leave or your school may be removed from the event.
 - f. KSSP's photographic policy, along with any additional information regarding photography for specific events.
 - g. Provide all data requested by completing the KSSP Data Collection sheet upon arrival and registration at the event.
 - h. Bring a qualified first aider along with a fully stocked first aid kit to the event.
 - i. The staff member accompanying your children/young people is qualified to do so.
2. If you can no longer attend the event for any reason, you agree to let KSSP know as soon as possible.

CPD and Courses

In addition to any relevant points above, you agree to the following.

1. You understand that if you can no longer attend a course you must inform KSSP.
2. You understand that if you give less than 24hrs notice of cancellation you will be charged for the event.
3. In exceptional circumstances we reserve the right to make any reasonable variations to courses, including the content and cancellation, without notice.